Sharing your information

- Young people and other data subjects
We will normally only share personal information with adult volunteers holding an appointment in the 1st Daviot Oldmeldrum Scout Group.

- Adult volunteers
We will normally only share personal information with adult volunteers holding appropriate appointments within the line management structure of The Scout Association for the 1st Daviot Oldmeldrum Scout Group as well as with The Scout Association Headquarters as independent data controllers.

- All data subjects
We will however share your personal information with others outside of 1st Daviot Oldmeldrum Scout Group where we need meet a legal obligation. This may include The Scout Association and its insurance subsidiary (Unity Insurance Services), local authority services and law enforcement. We will only share your personal information to the extent needed for those purposes.
We will only share your data with third parties outside of the organisation where there is a legitimate reason to do so.
We will never sell your personal information to any third party.
Sometimes we may nominate a member for national awards, such nominations would require us to provide contact details and award nomination details, such as citations to that organisation. We may also share data on award nominees for National Honours Awards, including the same data as above.
Where personal data is shared with third parties we will seek assurances that your personal data will be kept confidential and that the third party fully complies with the GDPR and DPA 2018.

How we store your personal data

We generally store personal information in the following ways:

Compass is the online membership system of The Scout Association. This system is used for the collection and storage of adult volunteer personal data.

Online Scout Manager is the online membership system of Online Youth Manager Ltd. This is a secure membership database where we store the personal information of adults and youth members for the day to day running of the Group.

Dropbox is occasionally used for secure storage of personal information.

GoCardless is used to process payments. We do not have access to individuals' bank account details via this service.

Our Leadership team use their own (and occasionally their employers') computers, tablets and mobile phones to access Online Scout Manager and Compass.

In addition, adult volunteers will hold some personal data on local spreadsheets/databases.

Printed records and data held while attending events – paper is sometimes used to capture and retain some data for example:

-  Personal details
-  Gift Aid administration
-  Events coordination with event organisers

Privacy Notice

Award notifications/nominations

Paper records for events are used rather than relying on secure digital systems, as often the events are held where internet and digital access will not be available. We will minimise the use of paper to only what is required for the event.

Further processing

If we wish to use your personal data for a new purpose, not covered by this Data Protection Notice, then we will provide you with a new notice explaining this new use prior to commencing the processing and setting out the relevant purposes and processing conditions. Where and whenever necessary, we will seek your prior consent to the new processing.

How we provide this privacy notice

A link to this policy is provided on our website (<http://1stdomscouts.org.uk/privacy-policy/>) to those whose data is being processed by us. A printed version is also available on request.

Your rights

As a data subject, you have the right to object to how we process your personal information. You also have the right to access, correct, sometimes delete and restrict the personal information we use. In addition, you have a right to complain to us and to the Information Commissioner's Office (www.ico.org.uk).

Unless subject to an exemption under the GDPR and DPA 2018, you have the following rights with respect to your personal data:

- The right to be informed – you have a right to know how your data will be used by us.
- The right to access your personal data – you can ask us to share with you the data we have about you. This is a Data Subject Access Request.
- The right to rectification – this means you can update your data if it is inaccurate or if something is missing. Parents can view and edit personal information directly on the Online Scout Manager Parent Portal and adult members can edit and update some information directly on Compass.
- The right to erasure – this means that you have the right to request that we delete any personal data we have about you. There are some exceptions, for example, some information will be held for by The Scout Association legal reasons.
- The right to restrict processing – if you think that we are not processing your data in line with this privacy notice then you have the right to restrict any further use of that data until the issue is resolved.
- The right to data portability – this means that if you ask us, we will have to share your data with you in a way that can be read digitally – such as a PDF. This makes it easier to share information with others.
- The right to object – you can object to the ways your data is being used.
- Rights in relation to automated decision making and profiling – this protects you in cases where decisions are being made about you based entirely on automated processes rather than a human input. We do not use any automated decision-making systems.
